

C&MA Men's Ministry National Leadership Team Meeting Summary
August 22-24, 2003

Eleven men representing nine C&MA Districts met August 22-24, in Atlanta, GA, for the semi-annual meeting of the C&MA Men's Ministry National Leadership Team.

1. The team identified six functions that are needed to encourage district men's ministry coordinators in achieving the mission and vision of C&MA Men's Ministry, defined the responsibilities of those functions and appointed coordinators to head up each area:
 - a. Assistant National Director - Len Ruffner (South-Atlantic District)
 - b. National Coordinator for Leadership Training – Don Reitz (E. Pennsylvania District)
 - c. National Coordinator for National Projects – Art Gibbens (Northwestern District)
 - d. National Coordinator for Resources – Brice Fennig (Midwest District)
 - e. National Coordinator for Inventory – John Frank (Central District)
 - f. National Coordinator for Finance – Len Ruffner (South-Atlantic District)
 - g. National Coordinator for Communications – Les Tripp (Mid-Atlantic District)
2. Len Ruffner reported that HonorBound was revising the Blueprint and Local Church Ministry to Men Manual to make them denominationally neutral, would include material provided by the C&MA, and imprint the materials produced for us with the C&MA logo.
3. The team received reports on a proposed National project and on disciplemaking resources. Both items were referred to the appropriate National Coordinator.

Respectfully submitted,
Les Tripp
National Coordinator (Communications)
