Small Group Resources: There is an abundance of Bible studies (book or topical) for men. Check out Man in the Mirror, Campus Crusade, NavPress, Intervarsity or men's ministry websites. Check with your local Christian bookstore.

One-on-one Discipling:

- Getting Started in the Christian Life: Life Concepts (five sessions, downloadable at www.Godsquad.com (Campus Crusade))
- In God's Family (2:7 Series) (www.navigators.org)
- Browse the web for other excellent resources

Men's Events: Men's Ministry in the 21st Century: The Encyclopedia of Practical Ideas, Group Publishing (Loveland, CO, June 2004). "This is more than an idea box of practical suggestions for men leading ministries or even for the pastor who wants to do more for the men in his church" (New Man, September/October 2004). The authors have great insight. They understand the challenges facing men's ministry leaders today. The ideas and suggestions are sure to lead to other creative approaches to your men's ministry.
